Our Lady's Schools will hold an Open Day TODAY Sunday 5th February from 11.30pm to 1.00pm . All are welcome to visit some classrooms, meet the teachers and view some of the children's work for Catholic Schools Week and Grandparents Day. Tea and coffee will be available in the School Hall.
Booking of Masses Families and individual parishioners who wish to book a specific Mass time can at times find the date is already booked. It is very good that people remember their departed loved ones but the desired date and time may not always be available. In future it will be necessary for more than one intention to be prayed for on some dates. We know that parishioners will be understanding of the situation. Fr. Liam Belton			The local branch of the Pro Life Campaign will be hosting a Coffee Morning on Wednesday 22nd February 2017 in the Conference Room at 10.00am. Parishioners are invited to attend to hear more about the current situation as regards the protection of the unborn and their mothers and how to get involved. Tea, Coffee and refreshments will be served. All are welcome and please consider bringing a friend. For more information, contact : (086) 313 2872 or (01) 662 9275. Thank you.
