More Practical Suggestions for Practicing the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy – by Joe Paprocki, DMin

Visit the Sick

- spend quality time with those who are sick or homebound;
- take the time to call, send a card or an e-mail to someone who is sick;
- volunteer to drive patients to medical appointments and treatment facilities;
- volunteer at a hospital;
- assist those who are full-time caregivers for family members;
- cook and deliver meals to the sick and homebound.

Visit the Imprisoned

- support and/or participate in ministries to those who are incarcerated;
- support programs sponsored by agencies that advocate on behalf of those who are unjustly imprisoned;
- support job-training and educational programmes designed to rehabilitate prisoners;
- pray for the families of inmates;
- support programs that provide holiday gifts for prisoners and their families;
- support efforts that seek the abolition of the death penalty.

Give to the Poor

- take some small bills or loose change (or coupon books if you prefer not to carry cash) with you to hand out to people you encounter who are in need;
- throw your coin change into a jar and periodically donate it to a charity;
- if possible make a regular monetary donation to a charity that tends to the needs of the poor.

Please be careful leaving valuables in your car (even at the church!). A lady had her bag stolen from the boot of her car at a wedding in the church last week.
