It's Been Wonderful here in Ireland

FR. EMMANUEL and FR. CHARLES

"We express our sincere thanks to all the Priests, Deacons and Laity of the Pastoral Area for your love and encouragement and for all that you have done to make us comfortable here in Ireland. We really acknowledge with gratitude Fr. Richard Behan for his hospitality and great care towards us. Likewise we appreciate our former Co-PP, Fr. John Ferris, for taking very good care of us and we wish him health of mind and body as he recuperates from his illness. We also appreciate our present Moderator, Fr. Liam Belton, for his love and care. Fr. John Bracken, our vibrant Co-PP, we are indeed grateful for your love and concern. We also appreciate Fr. Kieran McDermot and Fr. Donal for their support and love. To Rev. Noel and Rev. Gabriel, we also say thank you for all that you have done for us. We promise to always keep you in our prayers and we hope to come back again for holiday some other time. May God continue to richly bless you all. Thanks a million!"

STATEMENT OF ARCHBISHOP DIARMUID MARTIN ON ORLANDO SHOOTINGS

I have asked that in the Prayers of the Faithful at all Masses in the Archdiocese of Dublin on the coming weekend those who died or who remain injured and all those who mourn and grieve be remembered. Books of condolence are open at the Pro-Cathedral in Dublin for those who wish to express their grief and outrage. People all over the world are shocked. How do we explain that our modern society can somehow be held to ransom in successive gun attacks by individuals or small groups filled with hatred? It could happen again and it could happen anywhere. This time, the victims were members of the LGBT community; in other cases the victims were from the media or simply innocent bystanders. Fingers and blame are unfoundedly often hastily pointed at the entire honest Islamic community. Any culture which gives notoriety to violence only encourages the deranged or the simply evil to attempt to repeat such actions. As followers of Jesus Christ, Christians should work more and more to purify ourselves from all prejudice, to be in the forefront in dialogue and reconciliation and have the resolution to courageously confront those who anywhere foster violence.

STARS & STRIPES FOREVER: An Independence Day Spectacular
MONDAY 4 JULY at 18.15 - St. Patrick's Cathedral
