REPORT FROM WORLD YOUTH DAY

My name is Maria O'Sullivan from Ballinteer and this July I travelled to Krakow, Poland for World Youth Day with the Dublin Diocese. World Youth Day took place over 6 days and during this time we had 4 events with Pope Francis. The week started with opening Mass in Blonia Park.
For me it was very special coming together with so many young people to celebrate our faith together. For two mornings we had catechesis where we discussed mercy and our relationship with God. Pope Francis arrived on Thursday evening and the atmosphere in the park that night was incredible. It was amazing to be in his presence. Friday morning we had a Walk of Mercy where we got to learn more about St Faustina and see where she used to live. That evening we had The Way of the Cross. Saturday was our Pilgrimage Walk to Campus Misericordiae where we had a vigil with Pope Francis.
The week concluded with final Mass led by the Pope. The whole experience was beautiful and one I will never forget.
